

Many Changes In Lineups Of 'Big Three' Next Year

Yale Loses Many of This Year's Football Team by Graduation; Harvard Will Have Big Hole to Fill in Center of Line; Princeton Will Also Be Handicapped

(By International News Service.)
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 21.—When the whistle blows opening next year's football season, it will find Princeton's squad nearly intact, a big hole in the center of Harvard's varsity line, and the Yale forces completely changed. This is shown in a survey of the material for the Big Three for next year.

In the center of the Harvard varsity line those scheduled to wind up their undergraduate careers are Havens, center; Woods and Tolbert guards; and Sedgewick, tackle. These four linemen together with Captain Horwath and Dick Humphrey are the men whose services will be greatly missed.

HARVARD'S STRIKE.
Those who are expected to be out for the Crimson squad next season follow:

Ends—Kane, Crocker, Gaston, varsity; Macomber, Clark, Sedgwick, varsity substitutes; Morrill, Miller, Gratiwick, second team; Pantalone, Larabee, freshman team from Milton and Middlesex, respectively.

Tackles—Hubbard, varsity; Cooper, Eastman, Lockwood, varsity substitutes; C. Hubbard, Helder, freshman team from Milton and St. Mark's, respectively.

Guards—Brown, Crocker, varsity substitutes; Anthony, of Tufts; Tompkins, of Boston College; Rubin, second team; Greer, Donovan, Gates, freshman team from Groton, Boston, Latin and Milton, respectively.

Centers—Tierney, Kunhardt, varsity substitutes; Clark, 1923 team; Bradford, Kernan, freshman team; Quarterback—Buell, Fitzgerald varsity; Colon, second team.

PRINCETON'S PROSPECTS.
Next fall if everything goes per expectation the Princeton team should be the year's regular, will be represented by the following out to make its varsity squad:

Ends—Stinson, varsity; Craft, Greif, Jones, varsity subs; Sylvier, 1923 team; Tyson, freshman team and St. Paul's School.

Tackles—Kach, Hooper, Ruten, varsity (the last named was a regular until injured); St. Namers, varsity substitute; Fiske, Ohio State; O'Neale, Navy; Auldred, Monson, freshman team.

Guards—McMannan, Dickinson, varsity; Towser, varsity substitute, Barker, Moran, 1919 varsity; Pachal, Barclay, freshman team and Hill School.

YALE'S CHANGES.
Yale University's hope lies in the untaken freshmen seven. Of all the members of the so-called Big Three, Yale suffers greatest through the coming graduation for in the list who will draw diplomas are Callahan, Acosta, Dickens, Walker, Givins, Dilworth, Shellen, Knapton, Murphy, Kelley, Campbell, French and Neville, all of whom were regular or semi-regular varsity men during the recent season. The leading members of the array of Yale coaches will have to work with next fall are:

Halfbacks and fullbacks—Aldrich, Sturm, Jordan, varsity; Peterson, Stalck, varsity substitutes; Neidlinger, Wright, freshman team and Andover.

With Eddie James of Los Angeles, and George Solis of Salt Lake, furnishing the main six-round event and Frankie Harris of Ogden, and Jimmy Munson of Salt Lake, on the program in the special semi-windup affair, boxing fans of Ogden are promised a lively Xmas eve card of boxing in the Wasatch Athletic club arena, Friday night.

In view of the fact that Ogden stores will remain open until 9 o'clock Friday evening, Promoter Jim Downing has pushed the opening time ahead and will start the first boys on their journey at 9 o'clock. With the special program offered, preparations are being made to take care of a record attendance.

RUSS BOYLE THERE.
"Boss" Boyle of Ogden, is also scheduled to make his appearance Friday night and will tangle with Red Briggs, the heavy-hitting Salt Lake lad who created so much excitement last week.

Lloyd Wyott, the Box Elder county scrapper, who won many friends last Friday with his whirlwind style of milling, will again appear and toe the scratch with Jimmy McGee, a two-fisted scrapper of Ogden.

Fans will also see the appearance of Kid "Cuckoo" in the local arena on the Xmas card and a semi-windup battle is promised when he mixes with Young Bullough, another Ogden miller who has been showing class in training recently.

TREMONTON MAN.
Red Hoffman of Buffalo, New York, who has milled in several battles in the Salt Lake ring will tangle with Roy Price of Tremontion, a tough lad who has boxed for the past two years.

Promoter Downing says he has paid special attention to the matching of the scrappers this week and every event promises to be hotly contested. Eddie James is conceded to be one of the best featherweights in the west, while George Solis has won a good reputation in Utah for his fast style of fighting. James has mixed with the best featherweights in the west and has always held his own.

DEMPSEY ENTERTAINED BY SALT LAKE CLUBMEN
SALT LAKE, Dec. 22.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight boxing champion, threw out a challenge Tuesday which was not accepted.

The champion was the guest of honor at the local Rotary club's luncheon. He stated that he was not a speaker, who reminded him of the story of the man who went to a dance and who could not sing or dance but was willing to fight, "to be sociable with every one in the room," Dempsey said amid laughter.

SHERIDAN LAD WINS BOUT WITH NEW YORK WELTER
SHERIDAN, Wyo., Dec. 22.—Roy Conley, of Sheridan, was last night awarded a decision over Jimmy Stewart, of New York, when Stewart refused to continue the fight after the fourth round of a scheduled ten-round fight on the ground that six-ounce gloves had been furnished, instead of five-ounce gloves. The referee gave the match to Conley, declaring Stewart had forfeited. Promoters of the match said five-ounce gloves were not available and that both fighters had agreed to use six-ounce gloves before the fight had started. Both the boxers are welterweights.

Although schools of the state will close their doors today until January 2, hoopsters of the majority of the schools will continue their practices. At the Ogden high school, however, college practices will be held every afternoon during the holidays.

Johnny Dundee is seeking matches in New Orleans. Dundee is one of the best men in the United States in the lightweight class and is expected to be a big drawing card in the southern city.

turn to the ring shortly after the first of the year.

Rob Martin, western distance champion, was an Ogden visitor yesterday. Martin is preparing to enter the four mile final at Pasadena, New Year's day.

Ted Johnson, former Utah distance runner, now a resident of Los Angeles, will be one of Martin's opponents in the coming race. The contest was won by Martin last season with Johnson a close second.

George M. Varnell, University of Chicago, will referee the Ohio-California game at Pasadena New Year's day. E. E. Birch will act as umpire and W. S. Kienbohn of Michigan will be headlinesman. Joseph Mackerson will act as field judge. These selections were made by the Tournament of Roses committee yesterday.

The East high school Leopards will meet the fast American Fork high team at American Fork Friday evening.

NEW YORK.—"Coffee" is a Belgian police dog and he's been doing his bit for the New York Tuberculosis society. Much of the money to be used for the prevention of the disease and for the cure of those already afflicted, was dropped into the collection box that the pup has been carrying around in his mouth.

UNIFORMS FOR GIRLS IN DETROIT POSTOFFICE
(By International News Service.)
DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 21.—Uniforms, designed to eliminate rivalry in dress and save money and clothing, are to be adopted by female employees of the Detroit post office and all sub-stations, according to an announcement by William J. Nagel, postmaster.

The uniforms were ordered by Nagel over the protests of a number of girls who objected to "all looking exactly alike."

GOOD PRESS AGENT.
NEW ORLEANS.—While Johnny Dundee isn't doing much in the way of fighting to keep himself before the public, his horse, Warmack, is doing a good job of being his press agent.

SHE BORROWS MONEY BUT NOT FROM HER NEIGHBORS
She has a method far better than that—no publicity, no ill-feeling, no backbiting or neighborhood gossip. She brings her Diamond Ring or Platinum Watch down to our jewelry store (apparently) for a couple of weeks or a few days, as the business arises, and advances her the amount she requires and she is glad to pay the small fee we charge for the repairs—that is, the loan.

All loans strictly confidential. No loan too small or none too large. We always have on hand a good assortment of unclaimed Diamonds, Watches, Musical Instruments, etc., at reasonable prices.

OHIO PLAYERS DISPLAY CLASS
Undeclared Big Ten Champs Confident of Trimming California

Displaying the class of seasoned veterans and showing the results of wonderful coaching, the Ohio State grid-ders, who held a practice at Leeper park here yesterday afternoon, departed for California, confident of returning to Columbus with a victory over the California football stars and the national title dangling at their belts.

Ogdenites who attended the last practice yesterday were convinced that the Ohio stars are the goods and wished them success on their trip west.

Of the entire team Pete Stinchcomb, recently named All-American halfback by Walter Camp and Hoge Workman, were the bright lights. In practice, Workman was booting the oval better than 60 yards, the kicks getting away in wonderful fashion. At forward passing, Workman is also a star. He reeled off several passes during the practice for more than 60 yards. His passes travel like a bullet and go on a straight line about ten feet from the ground.

NEVER QUIT FIGHTING
Coach Andy Smith's California Bruins have prepared for a last minute attack in the coming contest and expect to foil the Ohioans in their attempts to win in the final minute. The stars from the east won three games during the past season in the final two minutes of play and according to Coach John Wiley, they aren't defeated until the game is over.

Stinchcomb, All-American halfback is one of the smallest men on the team. He tips the beams at about 145 pounds, but is as fast as a comet. He displayed ginger gallop in the work-out.

The line of the Ohio team will average around 190 pounds while the backfield will average about 170 pounds, according to Coach Wiley. Twenty-four more men are on the trip west and all are said to be seasoned veterans.

Captain Walter Huffman, a tall rangy player, holds down one of the halfback positions and is a speed merchant of the initial order.

With reference to the coming title aggregation has played wonderful ball during the entire season and I am confident that we will be returned the winners. However, we expect a hard battle. The entire team is in perfect condition and the men are all ready for the whistle.

Prior to departing yesterday afternoon, Coach John Wiley thanked Principal A. M. Merrill, Coach Shubly Peterson and Manager Frank Glimin, of the Ogden high school for the accommodations and the Ohio States during their stay in Ogden.

TELL IT TO THE JUDGE.
The difference between the Chicago baseball meeting and the one held in New York was about as wide as the geography indicates.

In the Windy City the molders of baseball destiny flew at each other's throats like so many hornets and ended by a formal declaration of war.

In Gotham the crowd has been as tame as a flock of trained lambs following a bell-weather in the corral. They said they would make Judge Landis the supreme dictator of the game if he would come in. The judge came in and the magnates have put the one-man spectre rule in his hands completely by the new national agreement.

No ripple of jealousy or discontent is to be heard from any of them. Landis is the court of last resort. His word is the baseball bible from now on. If he tells Ban Johnson or John Heydler to jump through a needle's eye or a barrel hoop, it will be all the same. These two birds will have to get down to weight and do it.

You can cite a flock of examples where a supreme dictator brought home the bacon. For no other reason than the fact that we all studied history in our kid days we cite the case of Napoleon.

He was a little fellow just like the judge. He tackled a big job. He came terribly near making good. His business wasn't all steam with roses. He played heads-up stuff until somebody picked him off the Christmas tree.

The same goes for the Chicago jurist.

AL YOUNG WILL MEET MISHKIND
Jack Dempsey Will Referee the Main Event; Many Ogden People to Attend

At Young, the scrappy Ogden lightweight boxer, and Aote Mishkind of Salt Lake, will furnish the fun in the feature event at the testimonial to be given at the Orpheum theatre, Salt Lake, next Monday evening. The selection of these two men was made by Promoter Hardy Downing of Salt Lake who is in charge of the mit events.

Young and Mishkind have met on several occasions, the contests, however, have all ended in draws and it is expected that this coming contest will be a hummer. These two men will tangle in a twelve round contest which gives promise of being fast from the tap of the gong until a decision is made.

DEMPSEY TO REFEREE
Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, will be the third man in the ring.

Thus far a brisk call has been made for seats at the show and a crowded house will be the result. Ogden, Logan, Provo, Eureka, Evanston and other cities in Utah and Wyoming will be represented by fans, it is said.

WRESTLING EVENT
In the wrestling event, Ira Dorn of Salt Lake and Gustav Hansen of Wisconsin will tangle in the feature. These two men are middleweights and the contest will be best two in three falls to a finish. Harry Heston will be in all probability referee this contest.

Jack Harbortson of Ogden and Sam Clapham, British lightweight champion, have offered their services to the committees in charge. It may be decided to use these two men in addition to Hansen and Dorn. Harbortson is known from one neck of the woods to the other and should, if selected be a good drawing card.

Three other snappy events will be listed on the card, according to present plans.

PROCEEDS TO FAMILY
The entire proceeds will be turned over to the family of the late Walter D. Bratz. Bratz was known from one end of the west to the other as the sporting authority of this section and was well versed in all lines of athletic endeavor. For many years he was a resident of Ogden.

Thus far more than fifty Ogdenites have signed their intention of making the trip to the capital city and paying their respects to Bratz.

The first event next Monday evening is slated to start at 8:30 o'clock.

DEAR OLD PETE:
Just wound up the one swellest day of my life! Since early this morning, when I got an invitation to visit R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. factories, I've been in the midst of millions of Camel cigarettes.

Man—the happiest idea you or I ever had as to the size of this Reynolds enterprise, or the number of Camels manufactured daily, is simply piker-stuff! Wipe off the slate and start fresh! Why—Pete, it seemed to me like a couple of those cigarette-making machines could keep half the nation smoking Camels steadily—BUT—honest to goodness, there are hundreds of these machines batting out Camels at the rate of 27,000 an hour—EACH!

Pete, you wouldn't have to consult a guide book to know you were in the Camel factories! The atmosphere is charged with that wonderful aroma you get when you open up a deck of Camels! And, you know, old elephant—you've had a trunk full!

As the Camels dropped into the containers I figured the delight each one would supply! And, how Camels mellow, mild body would hit the right spot and how Camels refreshing flavor would cheer up some smoker's jaded appetite! And, each Camel free from any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or unpleasant cigarette odor!

Pete—I'll have to lay off and light another Camel! Write you some more soon.

Yours joyously

Professional Football May Yet Get Real Trial

Many Sport Experts Believe That Professional Brand of Gridiron Game Could Be Made to Play in Metropolis and the Large Cities of the East

International News Sporting Editor
NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Professional football may get a real trial in New York and some other large Eastern cities next fall.

Jim Thorpe's Canton Bulldogs and the Buffalo All-Americans introduced it here recently at the Polo Grounds in a game that drew some 7,000 spectators. It marked the first time in twenty years that a professional football game was offered to the Gotham sport-loving public as a big attraction.

The game, while it did not warrant the owner of the big Brush Stadium to entice left an impression that professional football might be made to pay, and pay big. Secretary Joe O'Brien, of the New York National League club, said after the game that the number of paid admission was not large enough to make the attraction a paying proposition for the club, which operated with the teams on a percentage basis. However, it must be remembered that the New York public has not been educated to follow the fortunes of professional grid teams and could not be expected to enthrall.

Furthermore, there is strong opposition here and in other big Eastern cities against the professional game, which is constantly being hammered unmercifully by college athletic authorities. These two factors are hurdles that the game must clear if it is to succeed in the metropolis.

PLAY CLASSY GAME.
The quality of football displayed by the Canton and Buffalo elevens was a pleasant surprise to the crowd. The fact that practically every member of both teams formerly starred with a college eleven gave no one assurance that they would be able to put up a superlative brand of football. Teams composed of stars, as a rule, fail to develop team work. This was true, to some extent, of the Canton and up-State elevens, but they made up for it by playing hard, aggressive and brilliant individual football, and there was enough teamwork to satisfy the average fan who is prone to criticize.

In educating any public to support professional football the stirring up of civic pride is a big factor. The lack of college spirit must be supplanted and the fan must have an interest in one of the elevens that trot onto the field. It takes this along with a natural love for the game itself to make the "
